

J&S Construction donates to Hope Center Adoption & Family Services

November 12, 2020

Pictured, from left, are: Ryan Morris, J&S Construction; Crystal Young, Hope Center; and Mariam Nash and Dave Robinson, J&S Construction.

COOKEVILLE – The J&S Construction Employee Charitable Foundation recently made a donation to Hope Center Adoption & Family Services, an adoption agency that provides free adoption counseling and life-giving choice counseling to birth-mothers who find themselves in a crisis pregnancy or parenting hardship. Hope Center Adoption & Family Services opened its doors in 2018 as the Upper Cumberland’s first state-licensed, non-profit Christian adoption agency.

If you would like to find out more about Hope Center and its mission to nurture forever families, visit www.hopecenteradoption.com.

UCBJ Staff

Submit your story ideas to the Upper Cumberland Business Journal! via email.

UCBJ Staff

Submit your story ideas to the Upper Cumberland Business Journal! via email.